LAND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

We acknowledge that the Fort Langley Jazz & Arts Festival holds its annual festival on the traditional, ancestral and unceded territory of the Kwantlen, Katzie, Semiahmoo and Matsqui First Nations.

We respect the land and honour this tradition of land acknowledgment that dates back centuries for Indigenous people. With this acknowledgment, we thank those Indigenous people who still live on and care for these lands.

WELCOME!

Welcome to the 2021 Odlum Brown Fort Langley Jazz & Arts Festival!

This year, we are thrilled to be able to offer jazz fans and our community a combination of online, live-streamed and in-person performances featuring local and established jazz artists and emerging talent.

When the COVID-19 pandemic forced live music events to shut down last year, the festival carried on with our first live-streamed format. After navigating through the COVID-19 pandemic for the past year and a half, it may come as no surprise that our theme for the 2021 festival is the healing power of music. In that vein, we are delighted to have Music Heals Canada join the festival this year as our charity partner and co-presenter of the Sunday Soul Gospel show.

We are also honoured to host a very special Indigenous-Jazz Fusion streamed performance with Kwantlen First Nations group, Stomi:x Shweli (Warrior Spirit) and jazz trio, Triology. This one-of-a kind recording showcases the rich culture, music, teachings and stories of Kwantlen First Nations together with original composed jazz music.

As a jazz and arts festival, we are dedicated to sharing our love of music and all art mediums with the festival community. And this year, not only can you appreciate the work of local artists in our virtual art walk, you can also enjoy indoor and outdoor art exhibits during Jazz Fest weekend.

The festival truly would not be possible without the performers, artists, sponsors and partners who make up our festival programming and our incredible volunteers. It is because of you, our community, that we are able to explore, learn and expand the festival each year and continue to offer world-class performances and events for jazz fans across the Lower Mainland, British Columbia, Canada and around the world.

Thank you for joining us and listeners around the world, for unforgettable musical presentations and inspiring art exhibits. Whether you join us in person or from the comfort of your home, backyard or wherever you may be, we hope the festival brings you much joy!

For the joy of jazz!

A MESSAGE FROM THE GOVERNMENT OF CANADA

As a life-long music enthusiast, I am so pleased the 2021 Fort Langley Jazz and Arts Festival has returned after the difficult year we walked through together as a community and a country. There's nothing like good music, and beautiful art showcased in a festival environment to bring back joy.

My gratitude to Fort Langley Jazz and Arts Festival committee, the many community volunteers, organizations, museums, galleries, and artists who have worked so hard to bring the vision to reality.

My best wishes for a wonderful celebration of art and music.

Tako van Popta, Member of Parliament

A MESSAGE FROM THE BC GOVERNMENT

Congratulations to the organizers of the 2021 Odium Brown Fort Langley Jazz & Arts Festival for spearheading this fantastic local event. This festival is a wonderful opportunity to showcase our talented local musicians and artists.

Since its debut in 2018 the festival has grown exponentially as a result of its initial success and after a move online due to the pandemic last year, I'm so pleased to see in person festivities resuming for 2021.

Thank you to the organizing committee for the countless hours of planning and orchestration required to execute an event of this scale. Thank you also to each and every donor and to the many volunteers who gave their time to make this event run smoothly for the enjoyment of thousands of festival attendees. And thank you also to the artists who have struggled through the pandemic - we have missed your vibrant contributions to our social fabric.

Arts and culture are at the heart of our communities. This festival delivers amazing and diverse cultural and musical performances, highlights local artists and raises money for charity. All the events, whether in person, online, or hybrid are sure to be fantastic.

I urge everyone in Langley to take in one or more of this year's 22 participating bands and offerings including 9 free outdoor concerts, a live streamed Indigenous jazz fusion concert, a jazz education workshop for youth, and many amazing ticketed events.

I am so honoured to serve this amazing community and I look forward to enjoying this year's many festival offerings.

A MESSAGE FROM THE TOWNSHIP OF LANGLEY

It is my pleasure to welcome you to the Odlum Brown Fort Langley Jazz & Arts Festival 2021!

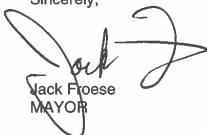

On the weekend of September 2 - 5, 2021, music lovers and artists from Langley and throughout the region will have the opportunity to experience live jazz music and visual art at this exceptional event. Exciting for both performers and audiences, the Odlum Brown Fort Langley Jazz & Arts Festival is a multi-day community festival to celebrate the arts and enjoy some truly talented individuals and groups.

We are thrilled to have this wonderful event hosted in our community, featuring a variety of emerging and established jazz acts and art. Audiences will enjoy free outdoor performances, including a unique Jazz-Indigenous fusion concert showcasing the culture of the Kwantlen First Nations, socially distanced indoor concerts and live streamed shows of various themes, including jazz-hip hop, blues, with a special gospel show in support of Music Heals, a non-profit charity that supports music therapy. With an in-person art exhibit featuring local artists and a virtual art walk, as well as other planned attractions, there is much to discover at this year's festival.

Since the inaugural event in 2018, the Odlum Brown Fort Langley Jazz & Arts Festival has brought live music and art to the streets of Fort Langley and showcased exceptional talent here in our own backyard. The Township of Langley truly values the arts and supports local talent, and we are thrilled to welcome audiences of residents and visitors, as well as talented local performers and artists, to another successful event.

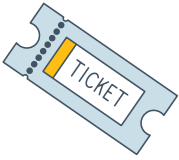

On behalf of Township of Langley Council, thank you to everyone involved in organizing this outstanding event and all the best for the 2021 Festival.

Sincerely,

Jack Froese
MAYOR

VIRTUAL FESTIVAL INSTRUCTIONS

Premium Virtual Festival ticketed shows:

- The day before your show you will receive a link in your email inbox
- On the day of the festival, click that link and the pass code that you have been given

Virtual Festival free shows:

- Go to this: www.fortlangleyjazzfest.com/virtual
- Beginning at 6pm on Saturday, September 4th you will see a video in the centre of the screen

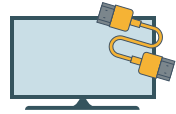

To create the best possible festival viewing experience:

- Where possible, connect an ethernet cable directly between your modem and your computer
- Before the festival starts, clear your restart modem's cache memory

Connect a TV to your computer:

- If you have a connection device like Chromecast, or AppleTV, follow the relevant instructions
- Otherwise, look at the connection ports on your computer and your TV:
 1. If you see HDMI connections on both devices, then a two-way HDMI cable should allow you to play your computer stream on your TV
 2. If you have a newer Mac, then you'll need an adapter that will convert your USB3 port to the TV's HDMI port
 3. If your computer has neither HDMI ports nor USB3 then you may need an external device like a Chrome cast or an AppleTV to connect to your TV

To connect speakers to your computer:

- Connect your bluetooth speaker for the best sound possible
- If you have a home audio system, then most will allow you to connect your computer through a USB to USB cable

OUR PERFORMERS

Amber Tsang Trio

Amber Tsang (she/her) is a young, up-and-coming jazz musician based in Vancouver, B.C. She grew up playing classical piano, then branched out to playing trumpet in jazz ensembles, and eventually, began singing in choirs and as a soloist. Amber aspires to encourage representation and equality with her music for young women of colour in the Vancouver jazz scene.

Angela Verbrugge Trio

Angela Verbrugge received the 2020 JazzTimes Readers' poll award for female jazz vocalist. JazzWeekly describes the former actress as "fun and quirky, hip and a hoot, wispy and romantic; she slithers and oozes, and cleverly swings." Tony Genge also maintains an active career as one of Canada's leading jazz organists and jazz pianists and has performed with many leading Canadian and international jazz artists.

Big City Soul

Ain't no party like a Big City Party! Music is the soul of the city, and Big City Soul brings it every time! This 9-piece band with hot vocals and super-tight musicians brings their high-energy show to this year's festival.

Blues Hoodoo

Blues Hoodoo takes you on an instrumental musical journey of the jazz/funk fusion eras of the 70's & 80's to present day. Along with tasteful selections of cover tunes from the masters, Chick Corea, Jeff Beck, Jaco Pastorius, Herbie Hancock and The Brecker Brothers to name a few, the band also features original material that showcases their tightness, musical expressions and harmonic adventure. A lower mainland festival favorite, cool grooves, a fun atmosphere, with consistent sold out venues wherever they perform.

Brandon Isaak & His Saints of Swing

Brandon Isaak & his Saints Of Swing are one of the most accomplished blues bands in the Vancouver area. The group is made up of all star musicians who are all veterans on the music scene. The band is high energy blues with elements of swing, funk and gospel with exceptional guitar, piano, upright bass, drums and vocals. The Saints Of Swing bring a high level of professionalism, originality and talent to the Canadian blues scene.

Conga Cartel

From the roots of Afro Cuban music to Clavé infused jazz this Vancouver based group, led by percussionist extraordinary Jack Duncan, illuminates and illustrates the historical and evolving intersection of jazz and traditional Afro Latin music.

Daniel Hersog Jazz Orchestra with Special Guests David Restivo and Steve Kaldestad

The Daniel Hersog Jazz Orchestra has performed throughout North America featuring a host of the world's leading improvisors. This past summer Daniel led his band in Toronto, Montreal, Boston and New York. This tour featured renowned soloists Frank Carlberg and Noah Preminger. David Restivo and Steve Kaldestad are featured instead of Frank Carlsberg and Noah Preminger due to travel restrictions. Featuring a who's who of Vancouver's top musicians, the DHJO deftly navigates Daniel's modern and exciting compositions. With brilliant ensemble playing, fiery improvisation, and a swinging sensibility, this band is not to be missed.

David Restivo Trio

David Restivo is one of Canada's most respected and influential jazz artists. He is a three-time winner of the National Jazz Awards' Pianist of the Year Award, and is listed in the current edition of Canadian Who's Who. Born in Lansing, Michigan, molded by the mountains and coasts of New England, and based primarily in Toronto since 1982, he has been a sought-after and influential figure in Canada's jazz community since the late 1980s.

Dawn Pemberton

Vancouver soul dynamo Dawn Pemberton has a deep musical foundation rooted in tradition. Dawn spent her formative years surrounded by a family of multi-instrumentalists and developed a true love of music as a young girl. In addition to regularly collaborating on the projects of her peers and having an educated background in jazz voice and piano, Dawn is a talented and passionate songwriter in her own right. A staple of the West Coast music scene, Dawn can be found tearing it up as a vocalist, arranger, and go-to for live performances and studio sessions.

Dee Daniels

Dee Daniels is a crowd pleaser and a musician's musician. Whether accompanying herself at the piano, fronting a trio, big band or symphony, she is a unique talent who transcends musical borders when she brings her jazz styling, infused with gospel and blues flavouring, to the stage. Many organizations and institutions in and out of the music industry have recognized Dee with awards for her contributions in music, education, and community service.

Jim Byrnes Band with special guest Candus Churchill

St. Louis bred, Byrnes moved to Vancouver, BC in the mid-70s after years of drifting, working odd jobs and playing music. He's been a mainstay on both the music and screen scenes ever since. His fame as an actor equals his legendary music status. From his numerous TV and movie roles, highlights include the Wiseguy and Highlander series, and his national variety show, The Jim Byrnes Show.

Kenny "Blues Boss" Wayne Trio

Wayne was born in Spokane, Washington and has been performing for over 50 years. Over the years he has shared the stage with a great many of the world's most influential blues pioneers, including Jimmy Reed, Pinetop Perkins, Johnnie Johnson, Big Joe Duskin, Joe Louis Walker and Floyd Dixon, and as a guest performer with well-known rock and soul artists that have included Ike Turner, Sly and the Family Stone, Delaney and Bonnie and members of Santana and the Doobie Brothers. As a touring performer, he has played to knowledgeable and appreciative blues audiences on four continents and has been profiled by music journalists in Europe and North America.

Kyprios

A triple threat. Spoken word poetry, music and acting are all embedded in the DNA of kyprios. After winning a slam in NYC's sacred Nuyorican Poetry Cafe, kyp started his own poetry night in Vancouver and began to generate a buzz around his lyricism. Shortly thereafter, the music industry came calling. Pledging to push boundaries of sampled hip hop by utilizing live musicians, kyprios is identified by a fleshed out, full bodied musical style.

Mike Rud Trio

Mike Rud is a Juno award-winning jazz guitarist and songwriter. He is also a music instructor at Selkirk College in Nelson, BC. As an instrumentalist, Mike has played along side some of the greatest musicians of the era like Peter Bernstine, Kenny Wheeler, Herb Ellis and Joey DeFrancesco. As a songwriter and arranger, Mike won the 2014 uni award for his album "Notes on Montreal, a critically acclaimed musical portrait of the city.

Mike Van Eyes

The notorious Mike Van Eyes is a Vancouver legend. A master of boogie woogie rockin' rhythm n' soul with a healthy splash of mischief. Over the past four decades Mr. Van Eyes has lent his talents to a broad range of artists from local heroes Herald Nix and Colin James, GI Blues and The Yodells — to wild rockers like The Trespassers and Copyright. Along the way he's played with everyone from PeeWee Clayton to Hubert Sumlin with shows across North America and Europe. Most recently Mike has recorded an ambitious debut solo album at Afterlife Studios (formerly Mushroom). Two LP's chock full of tunes with a smoking 18 piece band!

Noxious Obs

Purveyors of revelry and sonic pleasure since 2018: a mobile party band for all occasions and predicaments, serving the lower mainland and its environs. While still a relatively newish ensemble, this young group has already released two E.P.s (available at bandcamp.com). Made up of current and former students of New Westminster Secondary School, and directed by Mr. Steve Clements, this New-Orleans-meets Klezmer-Balkan Brass band is a mobile unit that can entertain at the drop of a hat. Expect the unexpected!

RazzMaJazz Brigade

The RazzMaJazz Brigade is a popular and entertaining band that performs traditional jazz, creole, New Orleans style jazz and dixieland. Comprised of top professional jazz musicians, the six-piece New Orleans style band features multiple horns and a swinging rhythm section. This highly entertaining and energetic band will lead the Mardi Gras parade from the Fort Langley Village Farmer's Market to the historical Fort Langley community hall to kick off the in-person outdoor festival.

Red Haven

Drawing inspiration from jazz and soul but redesigning it with Indie-Pop songwriting and a heavy backbeat, Red Haven have been touring their raucous, spirited brand of music for the past five years. Featuring the work of songwriters Jen Charters, Nathan Turner, and Brendan Steele, Red Haven tells a story that is both entertaining and incisive.

Steelin' Crazy Rhythm

Steelin' Crazy Rhythm create an exciting blend of instrumental and vocal western swing and jazz routed in the sounds of the early western swing bands of the 1940s. Made up of some of Western Canada's finest swing, country and jazz artists, the band will get you skipping. It features the pedal steel guitar playing of Tom Hammel, band leader, who recorded the group's first album in 2020 and legendary guitarist Paul Pigat.

Stomi:x Shweli (Warrior Spirit)

It is a teaching moment on each side. It is a learning moment. Each person in Stomi:x Shweli brings their own story and their own talents as artists. This is a time of shared hopes and visions coming to life. The value that each artist can bring to this performance is going to be one of a kind. This Indigenous-Jazz fusion project will showcase the rich culture of Kwantlen First Nations and provide an opportunity to share their music, their teachings and stories with people from all over the world in a new and innovative way.

Triology

Formed in 2008, Triology is a jazz trio featuring three of Canada's most sought-after jazz musicians. This group was fashioned after the great early jazz trios of Nat King Cole and Oscar Peterson and features wonderful arrangements of classic standards, as well as original tunes by the trio members.

Vince Mai Quintet

As trumpeter, Vince has appeared on hundreds of recordings for TV, feature films, commercials, and albums. Versatility is one of his major assets and artists he's shared the stage or studio with include - Sarah McLughlin, Michael Buble, Powder Blues Band, Natalie Cole, Eddie Daniels and many others.

William Chernoff Quartet

William is a prolific jazz composer and bassist under 30 years old. He has earned Canadian airplay on CBC's Saturday Night Jazz, CKUA's A Time For Jazz, and Jazz Boulevard. In 2020, he received a FACTOR Artist Development grant and released his first album, Aim to Stay.

XL The Band

XL The Band is a Western Canadian Music Award nominated hip-hop/ jazz/ alternative fusion band with a deep and rich history in the music industry. XL is a new artistic project launched by some of Canada's leading musicians and the body of work they've created runs the gamut of musical genres.

ART ACTIVITIES

We invite art lovers and collectors to join us in celebrating artisans found in the Fraser Valley. Scroll through our Virtual Art Walk, visit the indoor art exhibits at the Festival headliner shows and take in the outdoor art exhibit by the Fort Langley Artists Group on Saturday, September 4 and Sunday, September 5.

Carly Bouwman, Vivo Fine Art & Design
www.vivofineartanddesign.com/portfolio#/fine-art/

Carly Bouwman is a versatile visual artist born and raised in rural Langley, B.C. Best described in her own words: "I feel that I was born with art flowing from me and I couldn't stop it if I tried". Carly's most treasured part of being an artist is exploration and her work reflects this.

Preferring to be open to inspiration from many subjects, experiences and perspectives; she explores diverse techniques, applications and surfaces which drives her to create, grow and find joy in what she does. In addition to Carly's personal works, she also creates custom commissioned art for clients. Creating her business, Vivo Fine Art & Design, after graduating from The University of Fraser Valley's three-year graphic design program in 2003, Carly utilized her natural skills in fine art along with her diverse design skills; hence leaving her business open to a vast array of unique public, commercial and residential projects.

Susan J. Falk

www.susanfalk.ca/paintings-new/

Susan J Falk's studio is located on her 10-acre farm in beautiful South Langley, B.C. She teaches and paints full time throughout the Fraser Valley. Collaborating with poets and environmentalists, Susan received an Environmental Hero Award for her efforts to help save old-growth forests in B.C. She is a colourist by nature and has been showing her paintings in galleries for more than 25 years. Her drawings and paintings refer to subjects that often find their way back to her and that she loves to express in new ways. Often the challenge for her is how much energy and expression she should portray in a painting. She is often told that her brushstrokes appear as if they are vibrating off the canvas! Landscapes, wildlife, still life and figurative painting hold her interest. Susan was invited to showcase her paintings in Kyoto, Japan with her life-size bears and salmon in 2015. Currently, Falk's paintings are on display at the Shadbolt Centre for the Arts, since completing a Summer Residency at Shadbolt in 2019.

Triology – Formed in 2008, Triology is a jazz trio featuring three of Canada’s most sought-after jazz musicians. This group was fashioned after the great early jazz trios of Nat King Cole and Oscar Peterson and features wonderful arrangements of classic standards, as well as original tunes by the trio members.

Jodi Proznick – An award-winning bassist, Jodi has become one of Canada’s “top call” artists. Jodi leads her own quartet and is a member of many other amazing jazz ensembles, such as the Tilden Webb Trio, the Joel Haynes Trio, and the Oliver Gannon Quartet. Some of the legendary talents she has accompanied: Lewis Nash, George Coleman, David Fathead Newman, Ed Thigpen, Charles McPherson, Mark Murphy and Sheila Jordan.

Mike Rud – Mike Rud is a Juno award-winning jazz guitarist and songwriter. He is also a music instructor at Selkirk College in Nelson, BC. As an instrumentalist, Mike has played along side some of the greatest musicians of the era like Peter Bernstine, Kenny Wheeler, Herb Ellis and Joey DeFrancesco. As a songwriter and arranger, Mike won the 2014 uni award for his album “Notes on Montreal, a critically acclaimed musical portrait of the city.

Miles Black – With over 30 years of experience, Miles is a highly accomplished pianist and composer who has performed worldwide and recorded extensively. Miles has worked with many jazz greats, including Max Roach, Lew Tabackin, Houston Person and Harry “Sweets” Edison. <https://trilogymusic.com/>

2021 RISING JAZZ STAR AWARD

Supported by Coast Capital Savings

AMBER TSANG

The recipient of the 2021 Rising Star Jazz Musician Award is Amber Tsang, a 5th-year music student from Capilano University. As a young vocalist emerging into the Vancouver jazz scene, Amber combines her classic inspirations such as Ella Fitzgerald and Chet Baker with her contemporary influences to deliver her fresh take on time-honored standards. Amber aspires to encourage representation and equality with her music for young women of colour in the Vancouver jazz scene. As a recipient of the award, she will be performing with her trio at this year's festival.

Amber will be performing with her trio on Saturday, September 4 on the main outdoor stage at 10:45 am. She will also be performing with her duo at the Fort Langley Artist Group exhibit, ART IN THE GARDEN on Saturday, September 4, 12pm - 3:00pm at the former Birthplace of BC Gallery, 9054 Glover Road, Fort Langley.
